2022 Annual Review of Insolvency Law Conference

We are delighted to invite you to register for the 2022 Annual Review of Insolvency Law Conference to be held virtually on February 4, 2022.

The 2022 ARIL Conference agenda has been structured and thematically arranged based on the excellent papers received this year. Our top-notch roster of speakers will engage in interactive and dynamic conversations focused on the broader perspectives discussed in these papers.

New this year are concurrently run sessions to provide attendees with additional content. The ARIL Podcast Program will also return this year as an expanded offering to attendees to listen to panels at their convenience after the Conference.
