Civil Appeals: The Year in Review (2020)

Each year, you need to understand many different appellate court decisions in order to make sense of their effect on your caseload. Our presenters give you a deep analysis of the seminal cases for 2020. They clearly explain all of the case complexities so that you can focus on how these decisions apply to your litigation practice. Investing the time to attend helps you to get a better grasp on what this year means for your clients' claims.
