Civil Litigation Refresher 2022

Your role as a civil litigator is a constant balancing act — from understanding your clients' needs and having the necessary skills to meet them, to navigating through varied proceedings in an in-person/remote hybrid way. Our presenters guide you through the essentials of client interactions, drafting, best practices for trial, and more. You also receive the latest developments, case updates, and practice management tips to successfully manage the changing landscape of today's civil litigation practice. When it comes to the fundamentals, this is the program for you.
