OSC Dialogue 2020: What comes next?

This year's virtual conference will bring together financial industry leaders, senior regulators and investors to discuss what lies ahead and how they are working together to emerge stronger from the global pandemic.

The event will feature opening remarks by the Honourable Rod Phillips, Minister of Finance, Ontario, and a keynote panel discussion by five former OSC Chairs. David A. Brown, C.M., Q.C., Maureen Jensen, Ed Waitzer, Senator Howard Wetston, C.M., Q.C., and David Wilson, will discuss the challenges and unique regulatory issues they dealt with during their time leading the OSC, and the lessons they learned from those situations.

Attendees will also receive an update on the Capital Markets Modernization Taskforce from Walied Soliman, Chair of the Taskforce and Canadian Chair of Norton Rose Fulbright. Be sure to hold the date.

OSC Dialogue 2020 will be held virtually on November 4, 2020 and registration will open in late September. For the latest updates on OSC Dialogue, please subscribe to our event updates, visit the OSC website, and follow #OSCDialogue on Twitter.
