

The Advocates' Society

Mar 29, 2022

Privilege for Litigators

One of your obligations as a litigator is to protect and preserve various types of privilege. Yet, privilege can be lost under a variety of circumstances. Whether it's protecting privilege for your client, or challenging questionable privilege claims from opposing parties, litigators need to be up-to-speed.

In this popular program, leading practitioners and judges will discuss strategic considerations and best practices, and provide practical advice on this challenging area of the law.

You Will:

- Enhance your understanding of solicitor-client privilege and its limits
- Learn how to navigate litigation privilege, including settlement and common-interest privilege
- Examine waiver of privilege and implied waiver
- Identify how to effectively claim and challenge privilege in the courtroom

Continue reading:

https://www.advocates.ca/TAS/Events/Showcase_Pages/Privilege_for_Li