Spring Symposium 2022: Evolution and Adaptation

This is a time of change. But one thing that hasn't changed is the exceptional CPD content you've come to expect from Spring Symposium.

The Advocates' Society and the American College of Trial Lawyers invite you to attend the 21st Annual Spring Symposium, the premier CPD event for civil litigators featuring the highest calibre speakers, topics and thought pieces.

This practical program features the latest developments, strategies and tools for adapting and succeeding in your evolving litigation practice.

Topics Include:

- The Year in Review: Key Cases in 2021
- Fireside Chat with Marie T. Henein, Henein Hutchison LLP
- The Hybrid Advocate: Core Competencies for the Modern-Day Litigator
- Mental Health and Wellness for Litigators
- ACTL Keynote Presentation
- The Skills Gap: Mentoring and Training for a New Era
- A View from the Bench: The Effective Advocate
- And more!

If you are a civil litigator serious about advocacy, this is one program you cannot afford to miss! With in-person and virtual attendance options available, no matter how you choose to join us, you will take part in a dynamic and engaging day of learning.
