The Twelve-Minute Civil Litigator 2020

Concise. Insightful. Comprehensive. In short, a Twelve-Minute program is the fast track to all the recent developments in your area of law. We capture a variety of perspectives by drawing from a pool of presenters, and each one gets to the point within minutes. You always receive materials that explore the topics in greater detail and take away practical tips and advice you might not get elsewhere.

The half-day programs of our Twelve-Minute series make sure you're up to the challenge of a busy litigation practice.

- Update your knowledge on Limitation Period defences (Post Pioneer and with pandemic policy adjustments)
- Learn about contractual interpretation in the COVID-19 era and Force Majeure clauses
- Hear what judges expect from counsel with respect to the Commercial List
- Learn about the impact of COVID-19 and physical distancing on litigation files
