Tips from the Bench for Litigators (REPLAY)

You must do your part to keep the administration of justice running smoothly. How? It begins with maintaining clear lines of communication between bench and bar. Hear directly from judges and lawyers as they review proper protocol for tendering evidence, how to bring forth both general and complex motions, the appropriate use of adjournments and chamber appointments, as well as the expectations for civility.

- Find out when it is appropriate or inappropriate to use Rule 7 or Default Motions
- Hear the judges' perspective on the right time and reasons for Summary Judgement Motions
- Consider the Do's and Don'ts of documentary evidence
- Learn how to properly impeach a witness
