Trial Advocacy in Action: The Rosenberg Spy Case

Using the real trial of Ethel and Julius Rosenberg as the backdrop, our stellar faculty will take you step by step through their approaches to preparing for and conducting a trial, from the art of opening statements, to masterful examinations to powerful closing arguments. Leading litigators of the Canadian and American bars unite to share their mastery of trial advocacy, honed through hundreds of trials, in this special presentation of the American College of Trial Lawyer's popular trial advocacy program.
