

Law Society of Ontario

Nov 18, 2019

Trial Strategies: Promoting Efficiency in the Process

Access to justice is an important, overarching mandate for the legal community with many moving parts. What can one lawyer do? You can start with a purposeful and pragmatic approach in your litigation strategy. Post-Hryniak, the court looks for a balance between simplified and proportionate procedures. This Law Society of Ontario program will help you contemplate your overall strategy to determine how your client's case will best be heard by the judge, whether that means a joint submission of an expert report, court appointed experts, or purposeful negotiation and narrowing of issues before the hearing.

Continue reading: <https://store.lso.ca/trial-strategies-promoting-efficiency-in-the-process>